Farm City Week Awards Banquet!

Ag producers, business representatives and community leaders from across the county attended the annual Farm-City Week dinner, held Tuesday, September 22 at the Lockhart-Taylor Center of South Piedmont Community College in Wadesboro.

The event was held to emphasize the collaborations between the farming industry and the business community, with 180 in attendance. Outstanding individuals were also recognized and awarded plaques for their dedication to agriculture and business.

Farm-City Week observances take place around the nation each year to strengthen the understanding of farm-city connections that provide our food, fiber and shelter. Anson County is fortunate to have strong ties that appreciate our agricultural base and its importance to the local economy.

The Anson County Chamber of Commerce and Brown Creek Soil and Water Conservation District joined the Anson County Cooperative Extension staff to host the evening. The event combined the annual Farm-City Week observances with Brown Creek's annual awards dinner.

Sponsored by Pee Dee Electric, guests were treated to a reception before the event, then a beef roast dinner catered by the Anson County Cattlemen's Association. The evening program highlighted agriculture, award recipients, and entertainment.

Plaques given during the evening included Outstanding Farmer of the Year, awarded by Anson County Cooperative Extension, to Gary Sikes of Bountiful Harvest Farm.

Outstanding Agribusiness was awarded to Tractor Supply Company, received by Dan Ward, and presented by the Anson County Chamber of Commerce. Brown Creek Soil & Water Conservation District recognized Dr. Danny Wright and Brown Creek Animal Hospital with their District Sponsorship Recognition.

Brown Creek also recognized John G. McCormick of Lilesville as the Anson County

Conservation Farm Family. Resource Conservation Workshop Participant Hunter Taylor was recognized for his participation in the named program sponsored at NC State this summer. Not present, but also mentioned as attending was Curtis Napier.

The evening's entertainment was juggler, magician and comedian Paul Miller. Miller entertained the group after dinner with a show of jokes, pranks and fun, interacting with the audience and leaving them in laughter.

This year's event kicked off a week of observing and celebrating agriculture in Anson County.

The week ended with the annual Ag Fair at the Extension Center and 4-H Youth Livestock Show at Circle G Arena in Lilesville.

Remembering 9/11

Uptown Wadesboro, Inc. volunteers and Town of Wadesboro staff placed nearly 3,000 flags in front of the Anson County Courthouse for each victim of the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks.
